SEARCHING FOR UNDISCOVERED AUDIOAREAS...

MINUS HABENS is an Italian record label created in 1987 by Ivan Iusco. "I started MINUS HABENS completely alone using this name as 'ghost label' for NIGHTMARE LODGE (my first audioproject)..."
His further step was to publish several tapes for other bands/individuals, until the first vinyl (1988) and the first CD (1990). In these last years MINUS HABENS has grown considerably presenting continuous innovations, including the important DISTURBANCE sister label. Nowadays MINUS HABENS is considered one of the most active European experimental/industrial label, operating internationally to search out and release never heard interesting music. MINUS HABENS bring you an improved set of heterogeneous visions generated from multiple and obscure forces. The actual catalogue of diverse and exciting sounds ranges the obsessive and devastating rhythms of DIVE, the technological melancholy of KLÄNGE, the inner anxieties of NIGHTMARE LODGE, the hypnotic digital sequences of IMPLANT CODE, the surreal soundscapes of LOI INTERCEPS (aka MYNOX LAYH), the textured tribal tones of RED SECTOR A and many other artists. Massive doses of new audio stimulants are ready to contribute to your mind alteration drawing.

In '92 we've published the VIRTUAL REALITY HANDBOOK, when, 'virtual reality' was quite unknown to the people. After this experience in the editorial field, in November '93, we've decided to edit a new bimonthly magazine called NEURAL. This is the first Italian magazine about the various aspects of the so-called 'cyberculture'. It includes six sections: Virtual Reality, Network, Media, Future Sounds, Science Fiction and U.F.O., just to cover the poor information about these topics in our country and to documentate our personal researches and interests. Since June '94 NEURAL is distributed through the Italian newsstands!

The global village is everyday reality and 'information' is becoming one of the most important factors in our life. Millions of people connected to INTERNET are a tangible sign of this concept.
MINUS HABENS together with DISTURBANCE tracks the imaginary soundtrack of this epochal change.
And this music, as form of art and entertainment, could play a fundamental role, stimulating people's attitudes and let them discovering creative uses of machines for personal and social purposes.
We're preparing soundtracks for the next millenium...

notes

In the beginning of '94 Massimiliano Bocchio (KLÄNGE's mind) has released 'The Hertz/Heart Files' CD on MINUS HABENS RECORDS, an elegant meander through the borderlines between dreamlike and technological melancholy. 'Time Cube In Time Square' is the second full length album from KLÄNGE confirming this projects as one of the most interesting electronic project coming from the day by day more prolific Italian panorama.

"A tribute to the space dream and to the oneiric space." Massimiliano Bocchio use these simple words to emphasize the outer and inner space, respectively intended as physical extension of the human edges and voyage in the altered states of consciousness during the Rapid Eye Movement activity. KLÄNGE offers some of the most fresh and original sounds around. Each track reveals unexpected challenges and diversions. Singular sonic transmission hooking through its airwaves. An excursion through transfixing modular moodscapes both organic and electronic. It sounds like nothing else.

"Let the person who wants a vision hang himself by his neck. When his face turns purple, take him down and have him describe what he's seen." (Quoted in Jerome Rothenberg's Shaking The Pumpkin).
BODY FREQUENCIES is dedicated to the more interesting principles of body alterations and manipulations: tattoo, piercing and scarification. A renewed interested for ancient practices at the end of the second millennium, in which the human body became museum for indelible forms of creativity.
This outstanding compilation offers a comprehensive, representative profile of the European 'Industrial & Electronic music' with a total playing time of 70 minutes approx., joining renowned musicians as well as topical highlights or debut contributions of interesting new bands. BODY FREQUENCIES is a richly varied assortment and it will be for you like a 360° snapshot of the actual experimental scene. notes

After hitting hundreds of European dance charts with successful records like SPIRIT OF GIPSY, REMAKE, VIRTUAL PASSAGE, etc... Andrea Bellucci (a really active guy from La Spezia, Italy) signs on MINUS HABENS under the name of RED SECTOR A. It's completely different from his previous commercial projects. RED SECTOR A is born to bring an intelligent marriage of classic New Wave and the new English school of e-music without falling into trance or techno. Mechanical Resonance contains ten pieces of audio excursions, an extremely equilibrated mixture of soundtrack-like tunes and dark rhythms, with a peculiar attention on the samples' selection. A deep chilling sound journey through an unknown experience, including the right dose of scraping electronics to fill our days.
These soundscapes are intriguing and everyone can get lost in, mining the inner depths.
Wear your headphones and start to dream, hearing this exquisite and meditative, cool release.

notes

Formed only 3 years ago, 2 full lenght CDs and several live experiences around Europe have put KLÄNGE at the forefront of cutting-edge ambience.
Green Mars is their third album. It never ceases to amaze, as repeated listening again and again raise to the level consciousness, and it sounds piquant and full of unexpected revelations. And though we tend to fear the unknown, Massimiliano Bocchio offers solace as he takes you deeper into the endless depths of the perplexities of human existence. Twelve tracks in all to bounce you through the day.
The space rhythms of "...Tomorrow the World" or "Heartz" suggest infinite possibilities.
With tracks featured alongside stars such as Cluster, Eno and Black Dog on compilations like Ambient Voids-Technicians Of Space or Ambient Ceremony, KLÄNGE will not only be appreciated by fans of the newer bands like the ORB and FSOL, but by fans of the original pioneers of the ambient genre.

Track List I saw the future, Zona 9, A new era of friendly relations.

Description A3000 is a new project based in Bern (Switzerland) borning from PLANET LOVE duo. Stefan Reisen and Marco Repetto are consolidated DJs and digital musicians. They've already released a CD album and several records for REPHLEX (the APHEX TWIN's label), FAX RECORDS (Germany), etc...

Artist / Title BABY B. - Digital Dream

Cat.Nr. / Format (DIS013 -12 inch)

Track List Digital Dream - pt.1, Equinox, Digital Dream - pt.2, ICS

Description If you like the energy and vibrancy of the best hardcore rave but always wished it wasn't quite so tight-assed, these should be right up your street. Tons of solid basslines and warm pad sounds, but precious few of the innovative noises and production tecniques that set this stuff apart from the mass of bandwagon jumpers. Cruder and more brutal than his last 12 inch, but always superb stuff.

Artist / Title ASTRAL BODY - Spiritual Emersion

Cat.Nr. / Format (DIS014 - 12 inch)

Track List Rama, Equinox, Kodalena, Faces

Description A seasoned and artful manipulator of bleeps and beats. Spiritual Emersion is a trance odissey with an otherwordly quality. It's the sound of a man completely in control of his music. Sounds flow and rush in swathes of warmth for tracks that expertly drift with their own sense of internal structure.
Ambient for the body and mind.

A truly multi-dimensional album, and one that gets better with every listen, this serves to confirm the A 3000's position at the forefront of Swiss techno.
Sound submerged in distant liquid echoes.

Artist / Title MONOMORPH - Alternative Fluid

Cat.Nr. / Format (DIS016 - CD/2LP)

Track List Geometrical..., Monomorph, Lonx, Exiled Ambient, Minimalia (drumix), ...Spherical, Sequon ØG, Battletech

Description Batter known for their hard hitting techno extravaganzas as AUTOMATIC SOUND UNLIMITED (ACV Records). A breath of new oxygen: for 100% audible hallucinations. MONOMORPH produce this metallic percussion driven wedge of inclassificable techno. Alternative Fluid defies rules and conventions. MONOMORPH exists in a place where innovation, technology and melody wrap themselves around each other in a tight, paranoid huddle. It sounds like nothing else. Hi-tech psychedelia.

Artist / Title SWAMP TERRORISTS feat.: LASSIGUE BENDTHAUS - Brainfuck

Cat.Nr. / Format (DIS017 - 12 inch)

Track List Get O. 'Frisco Dump Mix' - Get O. 'Psychedelic Surrounding' - Sign - Index

Description On the first side you find two versions of 'Get O.' (industrial downtempo breakbeats) completely remixed by LASSIGUE BENDTHAUS and his unique touch. On the second side two versions of 'Brainfuck' (distinctive infernal hard-edged techno) remixed by DJ Killroy and the band itself. SWAMP TERRORISTS sonic assaults at their best.

Artist / Title THE FRUSTRATED - Epielettrico

Cat.Nr. / Format (DIS018 - 12 inch)

Track List Intro + Biosphere 3, Epielettrico, Magnetiks, A Way Of Escapism

Description Just one year ago, THE FRUSTRATED came from nowhere and hit the ambient scene with their first album 'The Anthology Of Experimental Music' made with the intention of collecting two years of analogue/digital full time experimentation. 'Epielettrico' is the State-Of-The-Art single from these two guys project. It contains four brand new brilliant tunes born to excite your brain waves. Don't miss one of the best example from the synthetic heart of Rome.

Artist / Title X4U - Video Trkx

Cat.Nr. / Format (DIS019 - video)

Track List Intro, Simulation (Virtual Music), Total Computer Control (mk II), Crash, Scared Dreams, The Blow, Simulation (Virtual Voice), Simulation (Virtual Attack), Machine Cycles, Mission Control, Simulation (Digital Clone), Blade Runner, Final Mission Control, The End

Description X4U synchronizes itself perfectly to form a unique audiovisual encounter. Videotrkx is the equivalent of a digital brainwasher. This video is full of astounding computer-generated sequences (Morphing, Fractals and hyperspeed frames from his hard techno world). Acidic video effects are also applied to industrial images, which are often repeated to the point where all original meaning is lost. X4U goes beyond the trip!

Artist / Title ASTRAL BODY - Auroral Belt Side

Cat.Nr. / Format (DIS020 - CD)

Track List Spiritual Emersion, Psychasthenia, A Bad God In The Mysthical Spirit Of The Man, Circumfluence, Antitrade, Shooting Up Junk In The Sky, Jajadeva, Rama City, Temptress (Slow Rmx), Equinox (Chloris Rmx)

Description After 'Spiritual Emersion' 12", here is the debut album from Torino (Italy) one-man-project Aldo Bergamasco. 70 minutes of stimulating excursion along the road less-travelled. ASTRAL BODY's mechanism works on forcing its particles directly into your consciousness. A twisted dream of ambient techno, coloured by progressive and intense rhythms. This is one of the best ways to gain a working knowledge of different waves in the world of trance. You're informed.

Artist / Title	XYREX - Extra Vehicular Activity
Cat.Nr. / Format	(DIS022 - 12 inch)
Track List	Cosmical Area, Infinity, Emotionless Uniformity, Tribe The Nation
Description	While many electronic musicians are descending into experimental dark ambient, Franco Canneto (a really active italian analogue sound engineer) is driving his sequencers forward to other directions. XYREX represents a new psychophysics extension born at his own Reddish Studio in Monza. A wonderful combination of melodic trance with rapid beats and deepest atmospheres enhanced from the experienced female voice of Robie Matches.

Artist / Title	DYNAMIC WAVE - Age In Motion
Cat.Nr. / Format	(DIS023 - 12 inch)
Track List	Synthwar, Glinx 1.Ø, Time Relativity, DW Sphere, Darkness On Rome, Heartbit
Description	DYNAMIC WAVE have already released a 12" on Nature Records (Rome). "Age In Motion" is a new collection of 6 tracks exclusively created for DISTURBANCE, flown over a procession of hypnotic rhythms and trance electronic waves. An intelligent use of drums, dreaming textures and weird melodies flowing effortlessly through energy techno pulses, perfectly displays their genuine talent and technical expertise. Remixed by the distorted and 'The Frustrated' mind of Davide Lombardi.

Artist / Title	A3000 - Synchral Voltage
Cat.Nr. / Format	(DIS024 - 12 inch)
Track List	Phuuzyd, Blooming Blip, P-Flog, Frex
Description	"Synchral Voltage" is A3000's third outing on DISTURBANCE: a new mind-altering 4 track EP. It's fuel for the feet and food for the mind...a delectable confection of driving techno grooves and infectious acid hooks. Repetto and Reisen after their experience with Rephlex Records (as SYNECTICS) effectively lure the recipient to join them on their beguiling journey through outer regions. Fast and hard fused nerve wrenching acid + powerful drum beats on side A and rare collages of electronic coruscations + unknown sound sources on side B.

Artist / Title	LE FORBICI DI MANITU' - Quadrivelogue
Cat.Nr. / Format	(DIS025 - CD)
Track List	Mainmap (Transoceanica), Maze-O-Pothalamus, Mackenzietherapy, Magalhães
Description	The luscious trance-ambient sounds on this album by LE FORBICI DI MANITU', an italian trio well versed in different musical idioms augmented for this project by guest Massimo Pavarini, are not intended as a form of solipsistic escapism but as a close scrutiny and analysis of details that make up the fabric of reality. The result of a self-plagiarist tour de force, the four tracks of QUADRIVELOGUE originate in fact from thoroughly reworked and mutated audio fragments extracted from the companion album TRIVELOGUE (still unpublished). Both works focus thematically on various modes of travel (Magellan's historical expedition that lead to the first circumnavigation of the globe, a voyage through memory, the LSD trip, the commuter experience, etc.) and offer to the listener singular opportunities of active interaction. LE FORBICI DI MANITU' were created in 1983. The present line-up includes the mysterious Manitù Rossi, Enrico Marani (ex-TAC) and the well known music journalist/networker Vittore Baroni (ex-Lieutenant Murnau and founder of the Trax label/multimedia project). For more info & direct electronic interplay with the group, visit the FORBICI SITE at Virtual Town TV BBS: +39 55 485997.

Welcome to DISTURBANCE's latest signings: URBANATRIBU'.
Massimiliano Bocchio, who had already released three albums on MINUS HABENS RECORDS under the name of KLÄNGE, has recently teamed up with Flavio Gemma (a veteran of the underground italian scene, former member of VIRIDANSE and C.O.D.E.X.) giving life to URBANATRIBU'.
Their homonymous debut CD album flows from track to track with Trip-Hop and Trance rhythms and a quite organic melodic approach. This is a very interesting and rewarding listening experience.
URBANATRIBU' make good use of the outlined time frame with music that evolves and changes at just the right moments. This CD contains music that you could use to sway your body all night long, or just slowly drift off to sleep invoking space dreams.
